

BOOKING'S GENERAL CONDITIONS

1. BOOKING: once the management receives the first payment, the customer is going to receive the “confirm letter”, which confirms their booking. As the customer receives it, he/she automatically accepts all the following booking's general conditions.

2. FIRST PAYMENT: the first payment consists in 20% of the whole amount. Its transition can be directly done or through bank transfer, postal order, cheque and by following the indications the consumer can find in the booking letter. At the check-in, when the customer is going to receive the keys, he/she is going to pay the balance, by cash, bank transfer, cheque or credit card.

3. CANCELLATION: whenever the customer, for any reason, would surrender their confirmed reservation, has to send a written notice at least 14 days before the arrival. Only in this case, the management is going to hold the sum and release a voucher for a next booking by the same customer, or its relatives/friends, within the following 2 years. The first payment will not in any case be returned.

4. ARRIVAL: the customer can enter the apartment the day of the arrival from 16:00 to 20:00. In case of delay, the customer has to rapidly notice the management by a phone call or email. Otherwise, the reception is going to hold the apartment up to 10:00 of the following day; after that, it can be booked again by other customers and no payments are going to be refunded.

5. DEPARTURE: for the departure day, the customer must leave the apartment at 9:00, cleaned and tidy. This means: to throw out the trash, to wash the crockery, to empty the fridge and to leave it open (do not remove the ice from it). Otherwise, the customer can book the final cleaning at the reception by paying €50,00 (only €40,00 for CT types).

6. EARLY DEPARTURES: the management will not refund not benefited nights, for any reason.

7. APARTMENT'S CARE: the customer is committed to take the best care of the apartment and its services. The consumer can complain about eventual unsatisfying situations to the reception until the first day. Any damages must be refunded. The staff is authorized to control the apartment's status, even when the customer is absent.

8. DEPOSIT: at the check-in, the consumer must leave €100,00 deposit for any damages, and it is going to be given back at its departure, once the staff has checked the apartment's status. If the customer leaves the apartment before 7:00, the management is going to send the deposit back through bank transfer, once the staff has checked the apartment's status.

9. AIR CONDITIONING'S USE: the service is included up to 80 hours/week. The customer can manage them independently. For more hours the customer has only to ask the reception and pay a little extra contribute.

10. GENERAL NORMS:

a) every customer has to observe the swimming pool's timeline.

b) every apartment must not host more people than the bedroom's number. Babies count as adults.

c) BRA doesn't hold any responsibility due to injuries, damage to personal objects, losses, theft, delays and other problems that could happen inside or outside the apartment. BRA will doubtless help each customer to solve the situation.

d) the management has the right to change the booked apartment with another, with the same characteristics and in the same building. Any extras are charged to the management.

e) the management will try to manage every request (apartment's number, floor, ecc), but without any guarantee.

f) if any BRA service may lack due to forces, the customer can't ask any refund.

g) is prohibited to host any unknown people. Any relatives or friends cannot use any BRA service, even the swimming pool. (Guests must be reported to the reception due to public security duty).

IT'S STRICTLY PROHIBITED TO INTRODUCE DOGS OR OTHER ANIMALS!

